Re: 15th Annual Fox Mountain COUNTRY MUSIC Festival, August 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th, 2018

Hello Friends:

Since Halloween just got over I'll mention that it always annoys me that when shopping for Halloween goodies, right beside them is the Christmas decorations. This seems to go hand in hand with other events throughout the year. I just wish that one event would get over before they load up the shelves with an upcoming festivity. It just seems like the stores are pushing their wares on us at every turn. Guess I'm just "old school". That is my rant for this time.

We seem to have been blessed with a wonderful October, one that I have not seen in many a year. Now on to November! I usually do watch the weather and near the middle of the month, I watch for a warm day and twist Gerald's arm to put up our outside decorations. Every year he bellyaches that it is way too soon. I argue that I won't put them on, I just want them up. But when the weather changes to a cold, windy, snowy, day near the end of the month, he always gives in and says it was a good idea to put them up early.

Speaking of November, I can now start taking reservations for sites from people who were not at the festival this year and who would like to reserve a site for 2018.

Let's hear from you!!!!

It would be fun to hear from you and let me know that you in fact enjoy receiving these letters and let me know what you like most about them. If you are like me, you get "stuff" via emails that you are definitely not interested in. There is an option at the end of this letter to unsubscribe if you don't want to keep receiving them. And if you find them annoying, like I said, I don't mind if you request to unsubscribe.

We have a website that you can check out as we will be adding information from time to time about next year's festival. Go to www.foxmountaincampingpark.com/country. Also don't forget that if you have face book, send me a request to follow us at Annual Fox Mountain Country Music Festival organized by Joyce Seamone. From time to time, we will be adding videos and pictures there as well so visit often.

Until next time, my personal thought for today is: I wish the weather would be wonderful every month like it was this past October. Now I understand why so many snow birds head south for several months every year. I just have to get my mind set to enjoy each season as it appears and find something to occupy myself with that would be most enjoyable during that time.
